

U@Uni Academy badge: Collaboration

Congratulations on earning your Collaboration badge. You have demonstrated 21st century skills – valuable skills that you will use as you move on to further study and work post-high school.

You can include this achievement in your portfolio and CV. Educational institutions, organisations and employers are looking for individuals with 21st century skills: highly valued qualities in our rapidly changing world and workforce.

When applying for post-school study, or your first job, you can use the following descriptions in your applications or interviews to demonstrate the skills you have gained. These are what you were assessed against in order to achieve your badge – so you have skills listed below – congratulations!

The person who has earned this badge has demonstrated 21st century collaboration skills, which include: the capacity to work constructively with others to achieve a common goal; strengthen relationships within the group by incorporating diverse perspectives; and focus on solutions rather than problems.

Badge criteria

- perform tasks efficiently
- encourage others to participate
- provide leadership to resolve conflict
- offer constructive criticism
- treat all group members respectfully