

UTS Prize Conditions of Award

David & Catherine Barker Mooting Prize

Faculty: Law

This document sets out the conditions of award for the below prize ('Prize') and the obligations of recipients ('Recipient') and the University of Technology Sydney ('UTS') in regards to this Prize. The administrative processes to support awarding this Prize will be managed, and may be amended, in accordance with UTS Rules, Policy and Procedures.

1. PRIZE NAME: David & Catherine Barker Mooting Prize

2. PURPOSE

To recognise a student who demonstrates exceptional performance and contributions to mooted team success in an academic year.

3. VALUE AND BENEFIT

3.1 Number of Recipients:

Usually, one (1) Recipient will be awarded the Prize at the end of each academic year.

3.2 Benefit/s to Recipient:

- The value of the prize to the Recipient is $500.
- The Recipient will also receive a certificate of award.

3.3 Payment of benefit/s:

- The Recipient will receive one payment of $500.00
- A certificate of award will be presented to the Recipient at the annual UTS Faculty of Law Awards Ceremony. If the Recipient is unable to attend the Ceremony, alternative arrangements will be made.

4. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The Recipient must:

- Be enrolled in a UTS Law award course; and
- Have participated as a member of a recognised Faculty of Law mooted team in the academic year for which the prize is being awarded.

5. RECIPIENT SELECTION CRITERIA

The prize will be awarded to the student that demonstrates exceptional performance and contributions to mooted team success in the relevant academic year.

6. SELECTION

- The Dean, Faculty of Law (or nominee) will Chair the Selection Committee with at least two members of the Faculty's academic staff who have been involved in coaching mooted teams to nominate a recipient according to the eligibility and recipient selection criteria as provided in clauses 4 and 5;
- Usually, the decision will be a unanimous decision of the Recipient Selection Committee;
- In the event that the Recipient Selection Committee is divided on a recipient to nominate, the Dean or nominee who will chair the committee will have the deciding vote to nominate a recipient. This decision may be made by majority.

- The Recipient Nomination Committee will then formally put forward the nominated Recipient for endorsement, with reasons for the selection.
- The nominated Recipient will then be formally approved by Dean Faculty of Law (or nominee).

7. OTHER CONDITIONS

- The Selection Committee may decide not to nominate a recipient if it is of the view that no student is of a standard acceptable to it according to the eligibility and recipient selection criteria as provided in clauses 4 and 5.
- The Dean may decline to offer the award to a proposed Recipient if the Board is of the opinion that they have not met the threshold to proceed to award.
