Why study Law at UTS?

- Study a Laws degree that will give you the opportunity to take a single or double major. Or, you could diversify your subject choices to get a well-rounded understanding of a variety of topics
- Major in Corporate and Commercial Law, Intellectual Property, or Dispute Resolution and Legal Practice
- Learn from experts in the field, with highly experienced academics and researchers who are committed to helping you succeed in your studies

“I researched various universities before deciding UTS was the right fit for me. The UTS Master of Laws (LLM) is the only one I came across which offers a double major - allowing me to concentrate on two different areas in the same amount of time. The LLM is extremely practical-based and I found that the course outline was very applicable to knowledge I need as a practising lawyer.”
