

GIPA2024/03 – Information already available publicly

Scope:

Documents related to the project “An investigation on the suitability of modern automated learning techniques to improve data-driven decision making for NSW Police Force”.

Available information:

There are 2 versions of the information requested available to the public:

- the first version has been deposited into the arXiv open access repository and can be downloaded using the following link <https://arxiv.org/abs/2211.04148>
- a final peer reviewed version has been published in Foundations and Trends in Information Systems, volume 7 Issue 1-2 and is available for purchase via a subscription to the journal or as a book from <https://www.nowpublishers.com/article/Details/ISY-030>