

UTS Prize Conditions of Award

Police Federation of Australia Prize

UTS BUSINESS SCHOOL

This document sets out the conditions of award for the below prize ('Prize') and the obligations of recipients ('Recipient') and the University of Technology Sydney ('UTS') in regards to this Prize. The administrative processes to support awarding this Prize will be managed, and may be amended, in accordance with UTS Rules, Policy and Procedures.

1. PRIZE NAME

Police Federation of Australia Prize

2. PURPOSE

The Prize, a gift, made by the Police Federation Australia, sets out to encourage students to achieve academic excellence in the subject: 21037 Managing Employee Relations.

3. VALUE AND BENEFIT

3.1 Number of Recipients:

Up to one new (1) Recipient will be awarded each academic year.

3.2 Benefit/s to Recipient:

- The value of the Prize to the Recipient is $1,000.
- The Recipient will also receive a UTS Certificate of Award

3.3 Payment of benefit/s:

- The Recipient will receive a $1,000 cash prize;

4. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be eligible for the Prize, a candidate must meet the following criteria:

- Have received a result in the subject Managing Employee Relations (21037) in Autumn or Spring session in the year prior to the selection of the Prize.
- The student must not have previously attempted or received any prior results for this subject.

5. RECIPIENT SELECTION CRITERIA

- The Prize will be awarded to the student who receives the highest overall score for the Industrial Instrument Report within the subject 'Managing Employee Relations' (21037) in either Autumn or Spring session in the year prior to award;
- If more than one student achieved the same top result in this assessment during Autumn or Spring session the recipient will be decided by the subject convenor, including broader performance in the subject.

6. SELECTION

- The prize recipient will be selected by the UTS Business School.
- No selection committee is required to confirm the highest mark.
- The highest mark is obtained from the UTS Business School's Academic Programs Office.

The UTS Business School will identify the successful recipient (or recipients) will be presented to the Dean, UTS Business School (or nominee), for approval by executive action on behalf of the Faculty Board.

7. OTHER CONDITIONS

Not applicable.