

ATAR Bonus Schemes at UTS, including number of students receiving points under each scheme for 2010.

UTS currently has the following schemes where high school applicants can enter UTS courses with an ATAR below the published cut-offs. Details of each scheme are published on the UTS website. Where the information requested is available online, the URL has been included.

There are no schemes restricted to particular high schools or groups of high schools.

1. Educational access scheme – inpUTS

- Eligibility criteria: Applicants who are claiming long term educational disadvantage during Year 11 and 12. Visit www.uac.edu.au/documents/undergraduate/eas-booklet-2011.pdf for more information relating to the criteria.
- Number of bonus points: Nil. However, includes 10 point concession (from ATAR cut-off) as opposed to bonus points.
- Number of applicants eligible in 2010: 530 (approx. 10% of all offers)

2. Special admissions – Elite Athletes and Performers

- Eligibility criteria: Applicants claiming that their study was affected by elite level training or performing commitments. Visit www.uts.edu.au/study/pdfs/athlete_instr.pdf for more details.
- Number of bonus points: 5
- Number of applicants eligible in 2010: 89

3. Female in non-traditional areas

- Eligibility criteria: Female applicants to Construction (in Faculty of Design Architecture and Building) female applicants in the Faculty of Engineering and IT (FEIT).
- Number of bonus points: 10 for construction; 5 for engineering; 4 for IT.
- Number of applicants eligible in 2010: 401

4. Year 12 Bonus scheme

- Eligibility criteria: Bonus points awarded based on the performance band achieved in select HSC subjects. Visit <http://datasearch.uts.edu.au/study/hscbonus.cfm> for more details.
- Number of bonus points: Maximum 5
- Number of applicants eligible in 2010: 8662 out of 12222 applicants.