Faculty: Engineering and IT

This document sets out the conditions of award for the below prize ('Prize') and the obligations of recipients ('Recipient') and UTS in regards to this Prize. The administrative processes to support awarding this Prize will be managed, and may be amended, in accordance with UTS Rules, Policy and Procedures.

1. PRIZE TITLE: Humanitarian Engineering Studio Award

2. PURPOSE

The Prize was established to recognise an outstanding project proposal in 41150 Summer Studio A – Humanitarian Engineering Studio, which address a genuine problem in the contextual area and provides an innovative solution that is viable to implement.

3. VALUE AND BENEFIT

3.1 Number of Recipients:

- One (1) Recipient will be awarded the Prize each year.
- The Recipient may consist of a group of eligible students who present a project proposal together.

3.2 Benefit/s to Recipient:

- The value of the Prize to the Recipient is $2,500; and
- The Recipient will also receive a Certificate of Award.

3.3 Payment of benefit/s:

- The Recipient will receive one payment of $2,500 (to be divided equally among the students in the awarded group) by electronic funds transfer, and
- A Certificate of Award will be presented at the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technology prize-giving event.

4. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be eligible for the Prize, the Recipient must:

- Be enrolled in 41150 Summer Studio A – Humanitarian Engineering Studio, in the summer session prior to the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technology prize-giving event.

5. RECIPIENT SELECTION CRITERIA, IN PRIORITY ORDER:

- The project proposal accurately addresses the contextual needs of the community and provides a valid and viable solution to solve the needs
- The project proposal is culturally sensitive in implementation, a well thought process for the context of the project
- Is innovative, creative and meets the criteria of the Client (Non-Profit).

6. SELECTION

A Selection Committee of the Dean (or nominee) (Chair) and a minimum of two (2) relevant UTS staff, and representatives nominated by the donor will select the Recipient on the basis of the Recipient Selection Criteria.

The proposed Recipient will then be formally approved or declined by the Dean, Faculty of Engineering and Information Technology (or nominee).
